

The Flute

Hillol Ray

The flute of life plays music
From the moment we are born!
But no one knows when music will stop,
Or heart will be torn!!
Accumulation of wealth is the desire of many,
But its loss is sad indeed!
While the loss of health will slow down the flute,
No matter how we try to feed!!
Selling one's soul to the devil of addictions
May bring a short-term fun!
But the devotion to God through flute of life
Will sing, ever after the life is gone!!
